Ignorance is not an adequate defence.

The Showing Register is not authorised to give guidance, however follows the latest Equine Prohibited Substances List “EPSL” and where appropriate the guidance on threshold levels as published by Fédération Equestre Internationale (‘FEI’). A minimum of 10 points in total must be obtained from the top five placings by the 31st August 2025 in order for the animal to be eligible to qualify for Horse of the Year Show through the Premier Amateur League Points Scheme. The minimum 10 points are required for each classification the animal is eligible for and points will not be totalled across different sections or classes

Each winner of the TSR Premier Amateur Points League will receive a prize as specified in the year they are awarded and are not transferable. There is no cash alternative to these prizes.

3e. Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award

The top five results for each amateur exhibits from the designated point scoring shows will be totalled to give an amount for the season.

The eligible amateur exhibit with the greatest number of points from the top five placings, which has not already qualified for HOYS, will be deemed the winner of the Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award for the class and will gain qualification for Horse of the Year Show 2025 in the relevant class.

This may not be the winner of the Premier Amateur Points League as it is based only on the top five placings.

Details:

- The exhibits must all (owner, rider, horse/pony) satisfy the definition of an amateur to be eligible for the Premier Amateur Points League and the associated HOYS Ridden Award to therefore earn points. Points will be awarded to the horse/pony.
- All exhibits must be members of TSR. For clarity, points are awarded to the pony. A pony can compete with two riders in the same or different sections; points are allocated to that pony
- All exhibits must be members of The Showing Register (TSR) by 1st May 2025 in order to be eligible for points in the 2025 season. These must be purchased from the HOYS/TSR memberships on the website. The parties must remain as amateurs under the definition until 13th October 2025.
- Only exhibits that have not already qualified for Horse of the Year Show in the current year in any HOYS class will be eligible for the Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award.

- If the horse/pony has already qualified in the same class, then the direct qualifier would take precedence.
- If the horse/pony has already qualified with another rider that does not meet the TSR definition of an amateur, then the Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award would be passed down to the next eligible exhibit.
- In the event of a tie-on points and placings for the Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award then points beyond the top five shows will be considered, if this does not determine an outright winner a draw to decide which horse/pony is the winner of the Award will take place. Please note this is for the HOYS allocated place via the Award, see below for information if there is a tie for the winner of the Premier Amateur Points League.
- Each Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award winner will be able to enter HOYS in the same manner as any other competitor, and with the same entitlements.
- Each Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award winner will only be entitled to enter the class in which they gained the place, and they must be eligible in accordance with the Horse of the Year Show rulebook for the current year.
- In the event that the horse/pony is sold prior to Horse of the Year Show, the awarded qualifier for the 2025 Horse of the Year Show will be passed down to the next eligible combination
- Previous owners must inform TSR prior to 31th August 2025 of any horses/ponies that have been sold.
- If the same combination wins more than one section, then the qualifier will be given to the section that has obtained the most points, and the other qualifier will be passed down accordingly in the relevant section.

Further information only for terms and conditions:

- Each of the sections/classes will have its own league table. Points for each horse/pony will be added together to give a total amount for the season. The horse/pony combination with the greatest number of points will be deemed the winner of that class/sections most consistent Premier Amateur exhibit. Only one award will be given per class/section in any one year. In the event of equal points, the winner of the Premier Amateur Points League will be determined by the greatest number of higher placings.
- In the event of there being less than six placings in a class, points will not be given to other combinations competing in the class, combinations who have withdrawn from the class or combinations who have been eliminated.
- Points cannot be refused and/or moved down the line.
- The Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Award is not transferrable and there is no cash alternative.
- The Premier Amateur HOYS Ridden Awards are awarded at the discretion of Grandstand Media Ltd.
- For Horse of the Year Show qualifying places that are decided as a result of a Championship, all exhibits eligible for that Championship will be awarded points as follows – please note that the exhibits must be the same throughout the class and
- the Championship:

Placing Points:

Champion 10

Reserve Champion 8

Championship animals not placed Champion or Reserve Champion will receive an equal share of remaining points applicable to the number of horses eligible in the championship. For example, in the Working Hunter qualifier where there is a Lightweight and Heavyweight section followed by a Championship where four animals are eligible for the Championship; the Champion will be awarded

10 points, the Reserve Champion 8 points and the other two animals will both be awarded equal share of the applicable 3rd and 4th placed points (6 and 4), therefore both exhibits will receive 5 points.

For 2025 Judges appointed prior to 1st January 2025 will automatically be given a TSR Judges Membership whilst they are on the TSR Panel for an administration charge of £30 for non-competing judges and £50 for judges using TSR as their eligibility to compete in HOYS qualifiers

Unless the judge contacts TSR to decline membership, it will be assumed the judge accepts the membership and the TSR Rules and Regulations. TSR reserves the right to refuse/withdraw any persons membership or other benefits without having to state a reason.

All information on the process of judges' appointment, fees and application forms can be found on the TSR website.

It is the responsibility of the judge to check their listing and contact details are correct. TSR will primarily contact judges via email, unless they request otherwise.

6b. Judges Appointment

Judges will be annually appointed to the TSR Judges register by the TSR Judges Independent Panel. TSR will email all judges listed on the panel to confirm they have been reappointed. TSR reserves the right to refuse appointment to the judges register without reason. Judges will not be appointed if:

TSR 'H' register is for HOYS accredited judges.

6d. Withdrawal of Judges Listing and Complaints

TSR has recognised other societies panels, through this recognition judges may be appointed to the equivalent sections on the TSR Judges Register, subject to the approval of the TSR Independent Judges Body. It is TSR's policy that if a judge is removed by the society from the said recognised Societies panel OR the panel is no longer recognised by TSR then TSR will withdraw or amend the judges TSR listing accordingly, unless the judge has voluntarily withdrawn without incident or complaint from the said panel. This policy is in place for all judges on the list that have not been independently assessed by TSR.

TSR may also withdraw a judge's listing if the judge is not a TSR Judges Member.

Complaints will be referred to the TSR Judges Independent Panel if required and will be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedure as stated previously in this Handbook under Complaints and Objections.

It is TSR's policy that if a complaint is received against a judge who has not been assessed by TSR and appointed to the TSR panel through a recognised panel they may be asked for reassessment.

6e. Judges Insurance

Whilst TSR offers Personal Accident Cover (refer to documents on the website) it is the responsibility as a TSR Judge to ensure that this is appropriate insurance cover prior to commencing a judging appointment and to also confirm with the show/event that they have suitable insurance cover. Although listed as a Judge on the TSR Register, this does not transfer any responsibility to TSR for my personal safety or any liability in the case of an accident or personal injury whilst judging, however caused.

6f. Judges Conduct and Duty

It is the duty of all judges on the TSR panel to comply with the classification, rules and requirements of the section that they are officiating in. Judges who fail to observe the TSR Code of Conduct, rules or whose conduct in any respect shall be, in the opinion of TSR derogatory to the character or prejudicial to the perception/ interests of showing in general or TSR, will be referred to the Judges Independent Panel for action and will be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedure as stated previously in this Handbook under Complaints and Objections.

Social Media and Integrity

TSR strongly advises judges to only use social media for their own personal use and not to comment on shows, judging appointments, exhibitors and photographs of horses and/or ponies. This can lead to misunderstandings and poor perception of a judge's integrity by the showing community. If in doubt do not Post, Like or Share.

Integrity is a vital part of the judging process, to be seen to be fair and independent at all times.

TSR is here to assist judges with their use of all forms of social media, please contact TSR if you have any concerns.

Judges Appointment Appeal Procedure

Should any judge wish to appeal against a decision made by the TSR Independent Judges Panel in relation to their assessment/appointment they can do so in writing with a deposit of £250 (which will be refundable if the appeal is upheld). The appeal should be received within 7 days of notification of the decision by the Independent Judges Panel and received by recorded delivery. The appeal shall be referred and determined by the Appeals Committee. The committee shall be appointed by TSR and shall comprise such persons as TSR shall decide but will be made up of three independent persons. The committee shall proceed by way of written submissions only and no party shall be entitled to attend in person or be represented.

General Conduct of Classes

1. Judges MUST NOT:
 - a. Judge any horse/pony under the ownership or production of any person for which he/she, his/her partner or business partner has provided or obtained livery or had any other connection (business or otherwise) Since 1st January of the preceding year, stud fees are exempt.
 - b. Judge any horse/pony that is or has been owned, bred, produced, trained or exhibited by him/her, a relative, business partner or partner. NB group teach ins or demos are exempt
 - c. Judge any rider who has shown a horse/pony owned or produced by him/her since the 1st January of the preceding year. NB group teach ins or demos exempt
 - d. Judge any horse/pony owned or produced by a person from whom the judge has purchased horses/ponies or to whom he/she sold horses/ponies since 1st January of the preceding year in which he/she is judging.
 - e. Compete in any class and judge at the same show, on the same day. This also includes immediate family. If a judge has reasonable grounds for belief that any section of the above rulings are being contravened then the judge must ask the rider/handler to leave the ring and they must withdraw.
 - f. If judging with a co-judge at a show, you may then not compete under that judge for the duration of the show.

2. In the event of a ride judge falling from an exhibit, they must not remount the exhibit in that class, the horse must be asked to leave the ring and will not be allowed to compete further in that class. In the event of a judge falling from an exhibit it is at that judge's discretion as to whether they feel fit to continue judging. In the event of the judge not being fit to continue riding, a replacement judge may be found, or competitors will be asked to do an individual show. The organisers retain the right to override a decision should they think the judge is un-fit to continue.
3. It is good judging practise to carry this handbook when judging for reference if any questions or problems on rules arise.
4. If judging HOYS qualifiers, you MUST judge them according to the HOYS Rules which can be found on the HOYS website www.hoys.co.uk.
5. It is the duty of all Judges to understand and comply with these rules and to ensure they are fit and well to judge.
6. Untrimmed ear hair and whiskers should not be penalised by the judge.
7. Judges are expected to pay particular importance to manners, type, and the suitability of the animal for the class in which they are competing whilst judging. If a judge considers an animal to be ill-mannered/unsound/unsuitable he/she may ask the exhibit to retire from the ring.
8. Exhibitors are under the judge's jurisdiction until they are asked to leave the line, after the presentation.
9. All judges must be aware that they may fall under the scrutinization of Stipendiary Stewards at any point during their time on the showground. TSR asks all judges for their cooperation with this process.
10. Judges should be advised that you may be contacted by the TSR office to seek clarification of classes judged.
11. When judging HOYS qualifying classes the Horse of the Year Show rules for showing apply. Judges may accept Horse of the Year Show qualifying rounds as set out in the class specific guidelines in the HOYS rules. Judges may judge an additional qualifier, if shows have been let down at short notice, providing the show asks Horse of the Year Show for approval.
12. When judging classes at TSR affiliated shows holding non-HOYS qualifying or training selection classes the rules of the show apply or failing a satisfactory rule the TSR General Rules should be referred to.

6g. Shows holding HOYS Qualifiers

Shows selected by Grandstand Media Ltd to hold Horse of the Year Show qualifying can register for free and use the TSR 'H' judges register.

Shows can choose judges from the TSR H register for all Pony qualifiers including WHP and M&M and the TSR Coloured Register of judges, they do not need to have any further affiliation to any other pony society.

TSR Affiliated shows holding Horse of the Year Show qualifiers must use the Horse of the Year Show rules for showing.
