

The Showing REGISTER

Talent Spotting Entry Rules

1. You must adhere to The Showing Register Amateur status as set out in the 2025 Handbook.
2. Entries will only be accepted from 2025 TSR Members. HOYS and Non-HOYS memberships acceptable for owners, pony/horse and rider (where applicable).
3. You may only enter one Talent Spotting Final , choosing either the age group or ability that is most suited.
4. The final will be judged as a Showing class, looking at the combination of rider and pony along with the ability to perform a Show. Conformation and Type is NOT taken into consideration.
5. Turn out of pony and rider must be appropriate and will be taken into consideration.
6. Finalist rosettes will be awarded to all competitors.
7. Please enter the Talent Spotting Final in the spirit that they are intended and of The Showing Register . These finals are the stepping stones to future success. If you have competed at HOYS/RI o this may not be for you.

 You may choose to enter as a Lead Rein or First Ridden as long as you meet the age criteria.

Exception to the one entry is for those who have been talent spotted for in hand and ridden, in this instance you may enter both finals.
